

Phoebe M. Brown

May 18, 2016

Brown, Phoebe M.

Chili: I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; 2 Timothy 4:7). I was born on March 5, 1931 in Kingston, Ontario, Canada and naturalized in 1955 in Rochester, NY . With my family by my side, I went to be with my Lord and Savior on Tuesday, May 17, 2016. I was predeceased by my daughter, Cheryl Haines and survived by my loving husband, Paul of 66 years and wonderful children, Cathy (James) Carpenter, Kevin (Kathleen Shoemaker) Brown, Sandra (Douglas) Norris, Deborah Lenau, William Haines; my 9 beautiful grandchildren, Billy Haines, Melissa (David) Phelps, Krista (Rob) Compton, Nicole Carpenter, Amanda (Adam) Proctor, Kyle (Leia Petty) Brown, Daniel (Laura Ille) Brown, Benjamin (Jessica Buchheit) Norris and Gregory Norris; my 8 great-grandchildren, Dominic, Jacob, Ethan, Zachary, Brady, Brooklyn, Kennedy and Vera have been a delight to me along with my dog, Holly. I worked for Trenholm Motels and Mill Restaurant and have been actively involved in the various churches we attended and in my business - Flower Partners Design. Our cottage and then our winter home in Texas were enjoyed by the whole family. I wish to thank the nurses, aides, and staff at Edna Tina Wilson Living Center for their loving care.

Family and friends Visitation will be 4-7 PM on Friday with the Memorial Service at Aldersgate United Methodist Church, 4115 Dewey Ave., Rochester 14616 on Saturday at 11AM. Interment at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, remembrances can be made to Aldersgate United Methodist Church or to Lifetime Care Hospice.
