Renate grew up in Germany, where she met her husband, Ralph, on a blind date while he was stationed there during the Korean war. She later moved to Rochester, NY to live with her aunt and uncle. As fate would have it, Ralph was from Rochester and would later look for her when he returned home.

Renate's life was centered around her family, always putting their needs first. She loved spending time in the garden, crocheting, cooking and baking. Her greatest joy came from spending time with family, her children, grandchildren and most recently her, great-grandchildren. She will be deeply missed.

A Celebration of Life Service will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the National Pancreatic Cancer Research Foundation.
