“ Dear Lauri,

I'm so sorry for your loss. Dick was a good friend of both Dad and I.

His extensive family, service to our country and his self made business acumen was an inspiration. As a small business owner myself, Dick was always a consultative ear to lean on, always interested in how my business and family are doing.

Rest in peace Dick and thank-you for the memories and friendship.

*Sincerely,
Scott Krenzer*

“ I worked for Dick in the late 1970's and early 80's doing auto body repair and painting. I was a young kid in need of some guidance. He challenged me to do my absolute best quality work. He had a reputation for selling some of the nicest cars at the Manheim Auto Auction. He sold to buyers all over the world. I still use the knowledge he gave me regarding setting and living up to high standards.

I will miss him and Pat.
