

Richard S. Sciascia

November 9, 2021

Richard S. Sciascia

Rochester - 1968-2021. It is with broken hearts that we announce the passing of Richard on Nov. 9, 2021. He is survived by his loving family, mother, Linda (Mariotti) Sciascia; brother & sister, Sammy & Sara Sciascia; nephews, Nicholas & Michael Scranton; great-niece, Gracie; aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Predeceased by his father, Richard on 4-7-21; grandparents, Sam & Grace Sciascia and Anthony & Theresa Mariotti; and uncle, Carl Sciascia. Our Richard, as we knew him, was tragically taken from us on November 1, 2021 and passed away on November 9, 2021.

Richard was especially loved being the first born son and grandson in both Italian families.

Richard's life changed at 17 years old when he began his battle suffering from schizophrenia. His life was filled with hardship and sorrow, but he persevered and proudly earned his GED. Despite being hospitalized and homeless many, many times, he worked various jobs from cutting down trees to parking cars at the Daytona 500.

When Richard was younger, he learned to play the guitar and also enjoyed working on motorcycles. Eventually he saved up his money and bought his own Harley. He also loved playing cards, especially Gin. Richard thought he was the best. We thought he was just lucky!

Richard was surrounded by his family and friends everyday of his life and he mostly loved it, but some times he had a lot to say about all of us.

We are grateful for having Richard in our lives. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

Family and friends are invited to call Friday 4-7pm at the Leo M. Bean and Sons Funeral Home. Funeral Mass Saturday 9:30am at Sacred Heart Cathedral, 296 Flower City Park Rochester, NY 14615. Interment, Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. Joe's House of Hospitality.

“ I have known Ritchie since I was in Barnard school with his brother Sammy. I always enjoyed talking with him used to get nervous when I was younger when he spoke so loud and got excited about something. I gradually found out it was just how he was and the Italian coming out. I had the chance to talk with him just a couple weeks ago. May he rest in peace with his Dad . I hated to hear this news . Definitely reminds me to Live One Day @ A Time!!! Love you the rest of family I will continue to pray for your strength...
