“ Rita and i worked together for Attorneys for Allstate. we had so much fun together, she and i were buddies. she was in my wedding as maid of honor. my mother had died young, Rita’s mother stepped right in to help my wedding day start calm. she invited mr to stay with them overnight, she had breakfast for us in the morning. we got dressed there too.

Rita and i just reconnected about five years ago. we would go out to lunch once a month.

i really don’t think she aged she looked the same. what a great gal. there is a hole in my heart. however i know her family has an angel in heaven, she loved all of you so much.

prayers and hugs for your loss, Jan Cleaveland Naujokas

“ We will remember Aunt Ree's warm, welcoming smile. Always accepting everyone. She faced life's challenges with a positive attitude. "Not ready to leave the party" until she was ready. "No tears", Aunt Ree just warm, happy memories. Thank you.
