“ Aunt Rita, awesome aunt I used to love going to your house, loved all the cats and dogs, and the best raccoon ever “Bandit”. You would always take me to coopers w you in the station wagon, snacks for me and Genny beer for her. Love you aunt Rita give my Love to Devon when you pass through those pearly gates. Fly high aunt Rita

“ So many , way to many to nail down just one. I used to to spend weekends at your house when I was a kid! And climbing as high as I could in the big trees in the back near the house. All of my love and deepest condolences to Jimmy and family

Both Kathy & I send our deepest condolences. We named Rita, "The Mayor" of Delaware Ave. She knew about EVERYTHING going on in our Hamlet of "Riverside Heights" I had a joy in simply mowing her lawn. She will always be in our Hearts. Pete & Kathy Knapp
