“ My heartfelt condolences go out to Marlene and family. A sweetheart of a man gone too soon!! I met him and Marlene at the animal hospital when they came in the first time with beautiful Kojak, also a sweetheart. A bit later, Kensi came along and even though they never boarded the animals, I never forgot ANY of them. His smile was infectious, he was always so personable. My prayers are with all of you. God bless, Sandy Caruso

“ My deepest condolences to the entire Barone family... I'm truly saddened of Bob's passing... Although I haven't seen Bob in years I go back to his childhood... I've known Bob over 60 years along with his parents, as they were VERY close friends of my parents Richard & Florence Scanio... Bob has ALWAYS been a Great individual to have as a friend... Bob and several of his cousins like Ron and Bob Barone have been friends since as far back as the 50's and parents even earlier... May my friend Bob "REST IN PEACE " and everyone cherish Our experiences and memories of Bob...

“ Bob was such a great guy. He loved getting people together. He helped everybody who needed it. He always made sure I was part of everything that was going on. He made sure I got invited. being a widow myself not many people invited me to campfires. Bob always did. Bob and Marlene became close friends of mine. Condolences to Marlene and family.. Bob will be missed but always in my heart.

“ I'm completely shocked. I had no idea until I saw this post on Facebook. I knew Bob, since our time at Nazareth Hall Cadet school. We also stayed friends through the years. My partner and I had the pleasure of reuniting over lunch several years ago while visiting family in the Philadelphia area. Please except my Sincerest Condolences. He will be greatly missed.

“ Marlene and Family,

Our hearts break for you. Bob was a wonderful and loving person. We enjoyed the many card games, fires and get-togethers we shared with him over the last several years. He was a good friend. We always remember how we met you both at donuts 4 years ago and have cherished every moment with you both since. He will always have a special place in our hearts.
