“ We're so sorry to hear that Bob passed away. We cherish the memories of times we spent with you both at lunches and Chili Library events. He was such a friendly and caring man and will be greatly missed. We missed seeing you both at the Farmers market on Saturday mornings. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dear Lesley,

We are so sorry to hear about Bob's passing. He was such a kind, easy-going man. We have such fond memories spending time at the senior center, going out to eat, and spending time in your home. Please know we are here if you need anything. We are thinking of you, and send you our deepest condolences.

*Sending our love,
