“ Roger has been our "go-to guy" as well (referring to Linda Whyland's message). We have relied on him since we were teenagers with our first jobs, and then our children went to him when they began needing tax preparation. He preferred in-person conversations or phone calls over emails or texts. He used pencil and paper with such excellence. He gave us such peace of mind. I am shocked to hear of his passing. Our last phone call was just a couple of months ago and he was his regular charming self. He was truly a unique person and we will miss him tremendously.

“ How fortunate am I to have known this barefoot-loving (slipper upgrade only outside the office), wise-cracking, fun-loving, last of the “by-hand” tax preparation gurus of our time. You were my go-to guy to get me through the rough patches (and there were many) with the little guy across the hall. You believed in me when I didn’t, and I want to thank you. I wish your family peace & my sincerest sympathy. Rog...I will miss you.
