Russell L. Dugan

Byron: Friday, September 12, 2025, at age 69. Predeceased by his father, John Ziarko; natural father, Ralph Dugan; sister, Debra Faulkner. Survived by his mother, Florence (Dowhower) Ziarko; sisters, Joni (Wes) Buisch, Pam (Don) Dolliver and Barb Martin; several nieces, nephews and dear friends. Russ had a heart of gold and was always willing to lend a hand. He enjoyed road trips, spending time at the beach, working in the yard, watching football, rough housing with the dogs, and detailing his truck. He was not one to sit still but would always find a way to make his time useful. After his courageous battle, he is now at peace, and is now with Jesus.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the staff at Hildebrandt Hospice for their phenomenal care.

Private services and interment at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Hildebrandt Hospice c/o Rochester Regional Health Foundations, 330 Monroe Avenue, Suite 400, Rochester, NY 14607.
