“ New to the area,I met Sherry 2 years ago while walking.We soon became friends and walked together daily.As we walked we shared our life experiences. She often spoke of her 3children and how she loved them so.She often spoke of her daughter and all the things she did to help her.Sherry was a kind and compassionate person. I was amazed at her courage and strength as she faced many challenges.She shared with me her home, which was immaculate! Her aging, 20 year old cat,with a life long illness was healthy due to care. She brushed the cats teeth daily.Sherry was an amazing walker. She was 16 years senior to me and could far surpass me with her speed and endurance!I will miss my dear friend. It comforts me to know she is with our dear Lord and Savior.

“ I only met Sharon half a dozen occasions. Each time she seemed strong, confident, and fun to be around.
