Shirley Aleese

Ogden: Saturday, March 2, 2024 at age 90. Predeceased by her husband, Charles J. Aleese; and son-in-law, Wayne Perkins. Survived by her children, Francina Perkins, Charles J.(Corrine) Aleese Jr. and Roseanna (Remo) Battista; grandchildren, Abbey (Mark) McMahan, Rachel (Dan) Mason, Matthew Battista and Allen Battista; great-grandchildren, Genevieve and Aurora Battista; siblings, Dorothy (Don) Hill, Kathleen (Gus) Matta and Ronald (Patti) Lantzy; and several nieces, nephews and dear friends.

Shirley was born in Spangler, PA the oldest of the four Lantzy children. She moved to Rochester and soon married and raised a family. Shirley had a successful career as an accountant at Bausch & Lomb and in her retirement years enjoyed working at Liberty Hollow. She was a lover of antiques, music and an avid Steelers fan. More than anything else, she always made time for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren who brought her much joy.

Private service and interment at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to a children's hospital of your choice.
