“ We had a long and cordial relationship that spanned 30-40 years. I had the distinct pleasure of preparing his taxes. Every year I looked forward to his annual visit. He was well prepared, got right down to business and even before we were finished he pulled out his checkbook .Over those years we developed a relationship. He was truly proud of his family and was concerned for their well being..He boasted of his much younger wife knowing my bride was much younger than myself. That was Eleni; ,Jimmie and Maria were their pride and joy.. I am sure he enjoyed the grand children and did his best to spoil them. Happy memories is all I have now. Will continue to remember the great man and now pray for comfort for all who are close to him. God Bless All! Kathy & Gerry Murty..
