MaryAnn I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Tim.He was just at my house and was so determined to complete all the electrical work he started he said he didn't want to leave any work unfinished so he did it all and I was so grateful for him he was a great electrician and could figure out the problem right away he was a smart man..He told me he would be going in the hospital soon after he was at my home I told I would be praying for him and that God gave him the strength to get through it but I now know that God took him home because he needed another Angel in Heaven.He had a kind and gentle spirt. I loved him and truly enjoyed knowing him all these years. I pray you and your family will find a perfect peace and keep him alive in your hearts with all your happy memories of your life with him..I pray Casey and Jeff will have peace in knowing what a great Dad they were lucky to have while growing up...God Bless you all.. I love you❤️🙏🥰
