“ Well Dad, you lived a long (97) fruitful, loving, healthy years to the end. We all wanted you around for longer but, you decided to go home to be with the rest of the family. Mom and Jeff, I’m sure have greeted you with loving embraces. We will always love and miss you ALL. Keep an eye on us, ok.

So very sad to read about my former neighbor on Amanda Drive. Always willing to lend a hand with any project and he loved our neighborhood get togethers. Glad I had the opportunity to visit with you last summer.

“ Was thrilled to attend and visit Uncle Bill (and family) to celebrate his 90th birthday. This year I was able to call on his 97th to wish him a good day and so very happy I did. We had some great memories to share and some laughs along the way.
He has always been so kind and thoughtful and had the best smile!
He will be missed but will rest in peace now with Aunt Carol.
Thinking of you all at this time of sorrow.
Lovingly, cousin Geri
