“ Hi, folks. My deepest sympathies on your loss. I worked with Bill at OPD for many years and had the greatest respect for him. It is rare in business to meet someone who had the attributes of great interpersonal skills and extreme competency. That was Bill and I am so sorry to hear that he had passed. We at OPD were privileged to have known him and will always treasure our time with him.

“ I wish I could be half the writer my father was. He always (lovingly) marked my high school and college papers with red ink and I always wished I could do what he could with words!!! Here I am again with words that just don't convey.... I miss you Dad.....I miss you Mom!!! The coolest guy and sweetest girl!! It's gonna be so hard without either of you right here with us!! Hope you are now together.

Through our Facebook groups, that sparked our mutual enthusiasm for movies we especially love, Bill and I became good friends. It soon went beyond that. As two aging guys entering our early 70's, we shared experiences that transcended our typical friendship into something deeper, more personal, to the point that he became a central focus of my handicapped social life. For me, Bill became irreplaceable, What a wonderful man he was! Through our many epic phone conversations and emails, the scope of our friendship expanded to the point when I grasped that two men could not have enjoyed or endured life's trials more than we, from his fun times, at Shakey's Pizza to his career occupation that won him my nickname as 'Chief O'Hara'.....to mine as a middle school teacher in a bad marriage in support of each other.....to his as an ever loving husband to Pattie, and his ordeal in losing her - but always with his wondrous Irish resilience .I learned so much from him! William O'Hara leaves behind his children and grandkids he doted on, his good friends gathered at his home for a movie watch or special places such as Rhorhbach's, and many more friends he made in film groups on Facebook. It was my privilege to be one of them. He was as unique and special to me as my own brother. My friend William O'Hara gave me hope, and God bless him for it. again!.

“ Michael and I send our heartfelt condolences! I always remember Uncle Bill as the ultimate movie enthusiast and having his iconic handlebar mustache. We are praying for you guys and wishing everyone peace and comfort during this difficult time! (I offer formal belated condolences as well for Aunt Patti. I always remembered that she seemed to have perfectly styled hair)! -With love, Nicole & Michael Thomas

“ Jason and Shannon and all Ohara Family
Christine and I offer our condolences. This was sudden for us.
Living close by your Dad allowed you guys to spend time together and hopefully the time you all spent together can lessen the impact of this permanent separation.
I posted some old photos.
If you ever are in North Carolina, we would welcome a visit.

“ Amazing guy and like a second father. The memories of some of the best movies that I’ve ever seen were because of you. Space invaders was a classic. And stealing your Genny beer!!! You were always one of the guys!!! Also I’ll never forget the chili best I will ever have. Love ya Jason and Shannon. Thinking about you

“ Just a few days ago, I was corresponding with Bill about a collecting passion we had shared for many years. He was even planning on placing a bid on an auction lot I had recommended to him. I hope that he was successful , and enjoyed that moment of triumph.

Regrettably, being a resident of the UK and averse to flying, I never met him in person, but through our emails, I got to know a warm, knowledgeable and incredibly funny man. His wicked sense of humour is something I shall never forget, and will miss greatly.

To Bill's family, I'm so sorry for your loss.

I'll never forget you, my friend. Rest in peace.

“ Since my sister passed and me & Diana spoke with Bill, he mostly talked about family and how everyone was doing. While he lived alone, it was obvious from conversations that he wasn't alone, as someone in the family was always calling him, visiting him or he visiting with them. Sadly we all pass, Pattie and Bill way too soon, but they enjoyed life, especially the family they made. Rick & Diane “ Thinking of all of you during this difficult time. Although it's been a long while since I've seen Bill, I do remember him as a great guy, very witty and a Movie Buff, I bet he knew every movie every filmed! He also had a great sense of humor. Bill and I stood up together in Mike and Laurie's wedding, and I remember when we were walking down the aisle, he whispered to me "so, do you come here often"! He will be missed by many.
